"PUNCHY" PONDERS particulars of telephone in The Desert Sun office, where he was "interviewed" on the state of affairs, including his duties as a night-spot greeter. The 20 pound chimp, held by co-owner Jerry Stevenson, former ABC-Warner actor, arrived in the Desert two weeks ago, loves people, the weather, and bananas with milk. "Punchy" was one of three chimpanzees who "escaped" Congo in last shipment to Pacific Ocean Park, which arranged his entry for Stevenson and partner Ronnie Spindler. (Sun Photo).

CONGO 'REFUGEE' ARRIVES IN TOWN

By PEYTON CANARY

"Punchy" is in town, one of the last "refugees" from the Congo.

An energetic little swinger weighing 20 pounds, "Punchy" has no beef with U.N. forces or anyone else.

He sticks mainly to matters of diet — heavy on bananas and milk — and gladhanding the citizenry like a born greeter. He is a greeter for a local night spot, and has been measured for a gold-studded tuxedo.

DESPITE THE tender age of nine months, "Punchy" coasts with the night people till closing time. A solid sleeper, he gets in about 10 hours of sack-time, arising at high noon.

"Punchy" has a highly mobile face which apparently both women and children can love, and two hands and feet for eloquent gestures to brace his pantomime communications. Being a chimpanzee, the multiple semaphore school of communication is easy for him.

"PUNCHY" HAS BEEN in California and Palm Springs two weeks. He is the pet and mascot for Jerry Stevenson and Ronnie Spindler, pool service and parking lot operators.

TELEVISION SETS GO OFF, BRITISH FANS UNIMPRESSED

LONDON (UPI) — Television star Chan Canasta told his audience Friday night, "I have here an infernal machine which destroys TV tubes."

Canasta then blew into an instrument and thousands of television sets around London went black.

They all came back on again about 40 seconds later with Canasta explaining it was all a gag. But not before 47 viewers had phoned the British Broadcasting Corp. to complain that "you've ruined our sets."

ENDS CONTROVERSY

Signs Removed By Two Hotels

A surprise move by a couple of local hotel owners to comply with a request by the city to remove their rate signs, may have brought an end to the rate sign controversy which was on the brink of erupting into court action.

Chief Building Inspector Jack Sanders yesterday contacted the two hotels which were in violation of the sign ordinance, and told them that the City Council Thursday had ordered removal of the signs or criminal action would be taken against the hotel owners.

Harry Taylor, who runs the El More Villa, removed his sign, which was the big issue in the most recent controversy this week, when hotelman Frank Davis of Davis Manor told the council that a $6.50 for two sign on that hotel was ruining his business.

Another hotel, El Prado, which was also displaying a sign, removed it, and the action of these two, stopped the display of a sign by the Palm Highlands.

City Attorney Jerry Bunker said today that he deeply appreciates the cooperation of these people, and hopes that Palm Springs has seen the last of hotel rate signs between the months of Oct. 1 and May 31.

Nixon, Eisenhower in Agreement On Quemoy Policy--White House

Security Head Visits Desert On Ike Trip

Reiterates That President Only To Rest, Play Golf

By FRED C. WEGEL

Harvey Henderson, chief of the White House Secret Service in Palm Springs this week to check security for the visit by the President of the United States, reiterated that President Eisenhower "would be here for rest and relaxation and a couple of games of golf."

He said that the President would not attend any social events in his honor nor accept any invitations to speak at public gatherings.

RELEASING ONLY vague particulars of the President's arrival (exact information will be released by Presidential Press Secretary Jim Hagerty), Henderson said that the President would arrive in the evening of Friday, Oct. 14, and would stay at the George Allen home at La Quinta.

The President is expected to be on his way to his meeting with the President of Mexico by 8 a. m., Monday, Oct. 24.

WHEN ASKED how the President would arrive here, Henderson said that at the present time he did not know — "it depends very much on the weather."

If weather permits, the President will be flown to Palm Springs aboard his MATS 707 jet, otherwise he will be ferried over from San Diego by helicopter.

THE SITUATION is almost the same with the Washington press, who, it is expected, will be taken to North Island to catch their plane for here. They will land at Palm Springs Airport.

If the President comes by jet, he will land at Palm Springs Airport, but if by helicopter, he will possibly land at the La Quinta Golf Course.

He will be transported by car from the golf course to the Allen home.

MEANWHILE in Palm Springs, plans are being set for a gala affair for the Washington press. The night of the arrival Eddie Davidson of the Ocotillo Lodge (headquarters for Washington press) plans a buffet and cocktail party for the Fourth Estate.

On Saturday night, starting at 7:30, Noel Clarke of the Palm Springs Ranch Club will host a buffet and cocktail party for both the Washington press and the local press.

Sunday night, the Desert Press Club at Palm Springs, in cooperation with the Biltmore Hotel will host a party in the new Press Club quarters of the hotel.

Driver Cited After Accident

Frank J. Matula, Jr., 54, head of the Los Angeles area Teamsters Union, was cited today by Palm Springs police for failure to yield right-of-way, following an automobile accident on East Sunny Dunes at Paseo Dorcas.

Matula's wife, Esther, 47, and the driver of the Hicks and Alford truck, Jill V. Moore, 54, were injured in the accident.

NIXON 'ELECTED' PRESIDENT BY JUNIOR HIGH HERE

Six Vandalism Acts Reported To Local Police

Two juveniles are being questioned in a series of six malicious mischief reports filed with the local police last night.

Police said juveniles reportedly threw heavy rocks through windows of the Rose Riviera home at 635 Calle Roca, broke three windows with rocks at the 600 Salon at 1224 San Lucas Road; broke windows in a telephone booth at Bob's Texaco; broke windows in two cars at Bonnie's Electric; and put a garden hose under a garage door at 641 Calle Chila and flooded the garage.

The police also reported today that someone had broken into Ladd's Hardware Store, but nothing was taken.

Board of Education Hesitates on Student Signboard at High School in 'Economy Move'

Smarting over the 2-1 voter rejection of an override in school taxes, the Palm Springs Unified School District Board of Education has delayed action on a request from the high school student body for approval of a huge signboard which would announce events at the school.

The board left the door open for possible future approval of the board but left no question that their hesitancy was based on the possible need for wholesale economies necessitated by the override failure.

MOSK WARNS ON COLORADO RIVER

California Attorney General Stanley Mosk told a water conference in the City Hall this morning that "Win, lose, or draw in Arizona vs. California, our Colorado River supply is more precarious than most Californians have realized."

Mosk's statement came in a four-point conclusion of his talk, delivered in a meeting called by Rep. D. S. Saund. Mosk's points in addition to the "precarious" condition of the water supply were:

— SPECIAL SUPREME Court Master Simon Rifkind's formula for giving California 58 2/3 per cent of the water in the Colorado River's lower basin main stream "will be only a prelude to more controversy."

— Uncertainty will prevail in the West as long as the "United States Department of Justice continues to challenge every western water right at every possible opportunity," and — Californians must not be divided on the Colorado River issue.

MOSK TOLD the meeting that Proposition One proposed by the state administration — and opposed by the Metropolitan Water District on contractual commitment grounds — "will bring us something like 1,800,000 acre-feet more water to Southern California."

If we vote to approve Proposition One, and if all goes well, that water will arrive just in time. As

DHS Boundaries To Be Set by County Board

RIVERSIDE—The county Board of Supervisors will consider a resolution establishing the boundaries for the proposed incorporation of Desert Hot Springs, and setting the election date for the measure, during the Monday meeting.

The Desert Hot Springs item will be considered in the afternoon under miscellaneous matters.

IN THE MORNING, the supervisors will conduct a public hearing on proposals for change of the names of Linda Flores Drive, Desert View, and Ajo Road.

Other items of special interest to the Desert area include:

— A report from the sheriff on a letter from the Coachella Valley Economic Development Committee concerning the Thermal road camp.

— A REQUEST FROM C. C. Covey to remedy speed trap at the intersection of Dillon Road and Indian Avenue.

— A request from the Coachella Valley Wild Game Propagation Club for payment of expenses to members of the County Fish and Game commission.

Answer Given to Kennedy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon are in complete agreement about U.S. policy toward the Quemoy and Matsu Islands, which has become a major issue in the presidential campaign, the White House reported today.

The White House said the President and Nixon had discussed the issue in a telephone conversation Friday after it had been kept boiling in Thursday night's TV debate between the vice president and Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee.

PRESIDENTIAL NEWS Secretary James M. Hagerty distributed copies of a letter, originally made public two years ago, from Eisenhower to Sen. Theodore Francis Green, D-R.I., then chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

"The position of the President and the vice president on this matter is exactly as stated in the letter the President sent to Sen. Green on Oct. 8, 1958," Hagerty said.

HE REMINDED that Kennedy had quoted one sentence from that letter in the debate Thursday night.

To support his argument that the United States should not commit itself to defend the islands from attack by Chinese Communists, Kennedy quoted a sentence in which the President told Green: "Neither you nor any other American need feel that the United States will be involved in military hostilities merely in defense of Quemoy or Matsu."

HAGERTY SAID that the President "believes that to correctly state his position requires reading the entire letter, not just one sentence."

The two-year-old letter to Green noted that the Rhode Island senator felt that Quemoy was not vital to the defense of the National base at Formosa or the United States, that the United States would be without allies in a war over the islands and that a war would not command the support of the American people.

IN COMMENTING on Green's concern about the possibility of war the President said in the letter that the United States would not get involved in a conflict merely to defend Quemoy and Matsu.

"But the test which the Congress established was whether or not the defense of these positions was judged by the President to be required or appropriate in assuring the defense of Formosa," the letter said.

THE NUNEZ Brothers, instant favorites here, are featured in the Riviera Hotel dining room along with the Bobby Ramos Orchestra. The two troubadours opened Thursday in the hotel and have had good response from the crowds.

Arts Spurt For Desert Forecast

By GEORGE LAINE
Bob Schieble, the new manager of the La Quinta Hotel, feels that the Palm Springs — Desert Area may be standing on the threshold of a new emergence as a cultural and artistic leader in the West.

The ingredients, he said, over dinner at the Chi Chi, are all here to support such a thesis.

FIRST OF ALL, there is the winter weather, regarded by most as the best climatic condition in the nation.

Second, there is the proximity to a major cultural market — Los Angeles.

Third, there are the great numbers of artistic persons who make Palm Springs a home away from home or at least a "must" stop in their winter travels.

"Sooner or later," Schieble says, "our Coachella Valley sees virtually every major artist and entertainer. We're probably missing a bet by not having called on their abilities before."

SCHIEBLE KNOWS whereof he speaks.

As manager of a Beaumont, Tex. hotel, he aided in formation of the Broadway Theater League of Beaumont, then proceeded to present a dozen high caliber plays in the period between 1955 and 1960.

Included were such efforts as "Auntie Mame," with Sylvia Sydney; "The Diary of Anne Frank," with Francis Lederer; "Romanoff and Juliet," with Bert Lahr; "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs," with Joan Blondell; "Look Homeward, Angel," with Miriam Hopkins, and many others.

"The artists we had access to in Texas were much more limited in number than those available here. I understand the Ferraris do some nice things here and I'm waiting to see some of them."

SCHIEBLE BELIEVES that the emergence of Palm Springs and the Desert Area as a cultural force in the West relies somewhat on the attitudes created by Desert region chambers of commerce, city councils, advisory committees and other agencies.

"It's difficult to create an artistic climate if your community leadership doesn't appear to want it," he said. "In Texas, we usually had strong support from our agencies."

Schieble makes so much good sense, you could listen to him talk all night. (Unfortunately they wanted to close the Chi Chi at 2 a.m., so we had to curtail things.) Now, then, about this leadership attitude...

HERE'S A SUGGESTION for the loser in the presidential election on Nov. 3.

Since both Nixon and Kennedy have had considerable experience on television of late, some network might up and ask the loser to take on a once weekly show analyzing his winning opponent in a critical vein.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Press Club members and guests will have a chance to hear a great little trio in the Tempos... They've gathered together some great talent, highly experienced, and they'll be playing from 6:30 p.m. until the party breaks... Don't miss it...

Too bad about Charlie Chaplin's kid having his lawsuit (his dad's footprints were omitted in H'wood's "Walk of Fame") rejected by a judge... Junior should have been able to realize that his dad "walked out" on the recognition when he spurned his country...

Soprano Stars In Redlands Chamber Event

REDLANDS — The University of Redlands Chamber Music Series opens Tuesday, Oct. 18 at 8:15 p.m. with Grace-Lynne Martin, soprano. Burnett Atkinson, flute, and Carol Rosenstiel, harpsichord in the university Watchorn Auditorium.

Miss Martin will perform, accompanied by the flute and harpsichord, "Three Songs," by Agostino Steffani "Durchlauchte dich, stolzer Geist," by George Telemanni "Sonata in C Major," James Hook, and 18th English songs including Thomas Arne's "Under the Greenwood Tree," and "Faithful Lover."

SONATA FOR FLUTE and Continuo by Leonardo Vince (1690 - 1730) and the cantata "Solitude, Ah How Welcome," by Alessandro Scarlatti (1659 - 1725) for voice, flute and harpsichord will conclude the program.

Miss Martin's appearance on radio, television, concert, and opera include world premiere performances in operatic roles and concert repertoire.

A solo recording artist for Columbia, she has, in addition, performed with symphony orchestras under the direction of Thor Johnson, Alfred Wallenstein and Igor Stravinsky. She has performed in operatic productions in the Los Angeles Greek Theatre and for the Los Angeles Guild Opera Company.

ATKINSON, PRESENTLY with Paramount Studios, is a graduate of Eastman School of Music and the Curtis Institute. He is a former member of the Philadelphia Orchestra, Minneapolis, Chicago, and Los Angeles Symphonies.

Carol Rosenstiel studied with Ralph Kirkpatrick, Dalcroze and Juilliard Schools of Music. She has performed in New York's Town Hall, Carnegie Hall, Metropolitan Museum, and is known in the Los Angeles area for her extensive chamber music work. In New York City she gave first performances of contemporary harpsichord music over a major radio station.

DELAY OF CARPET POSTPONES PREMIERE FOR DESERT CLUB

LA QUINTA — Mr. and Mrs. Calvin W. Gardner, managers of the La Quinta Desert Club, said today that a delay in receiving 150 yards of custom designed carpet will hold up the press premiere and grand opening of the Desert Club for a few days.

For the carpet, which is being especially designed and woven, the weavers had to perfect a special dye, which works with the colors of turquoise, tangerine, and gold.

Members are asked to be patient until the carpet has been received and put in for the opening.

The club has been completely renovated and modernized.

Women Meet at Luncheon

Bermuda Dunes Country Club was the setting for a "Vote Yes on 6" luncheon Thursday when Women from the Palm Springs and Coachella Valley clubs were invited to learn the story of Proposition 6 and to carry the message back to their respective clubs.

Mrs. Alfred Berkman of Bermuda Dunes was hostess at the meeting. Mrs. Berkman is also Chairman of the Womens Desert Area for "Yes on 6."

THE LOS ANGELES office of the public relations firm handling Proposition 6 was represented by Mrs. Carl Wray who outlined to the group the purposes behind the Proposition explaining that it is intended to prevent unfair taxes on non-profit golf recreation areas.

A film, "The Face of Tomorrow" showed how the rapid growth in California has lead to many of these recreation areas being taxed out of existence.

THE FOLLOWING women attended the "Yes on 6" luncheon. Mrs. Alfred Berkman, Herman Winston and Sidney Freeman representing Bermuda Dunes; R. T. Pierson and J. J. Moran, Indian Wells; Art Emerson and Helen Huntington, Shadow Mountain; Di-ven Meredith and W. W. Kelly, Coachella Valley Womens Golf Ass'n; Joseph Frogatt, Jr.; and Fred Klump, Thunderbird; Duane Wheeler, Eldorado; Miss Florence Schwartz, Tamarisk and Eleanor Wagner, Zone 2 Manager.

Mrs. Wray was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Irvine. The Zone 2 area is comprised of the southern part of Riverside County and all of Imperial County.

Airliner Check For Gas Bounces; Police in Chase

Officials of Palm Springs Airport are looking for $922 in a customers bank account today, with the help of Palm Springs police investigators.

The due bill arose when a DC-4 four - engine airplane flew into Palm Springs August 13 with a charter load of Marine reservists from San Antonio, Tex. The aircraft was filled with $750 worth of gasoline here, and a check was given in payment, police detectives reported.

On Aug. 27, the plane, still emblazoned with "Miami Airlines" on its side, returned. An additional $172 worth of gasoline was purchased. Both checks, issued on a North Carolina bank, bounced.

Strebe Rejects Vote and Co-Op Tax Plan Fails

Introduction of a new ordinance which would place a business license tax on cooperative home developments, failed last night with a 3 - 3 vote, with Councilman Earle C. Strebe failing to vote to break the tie.

Strebe said he did "not understand the issue" and abstained from casting his vote.

IF THE ORDINANCE had passed it would have regulated cooperative homes as apartments, subject to be leased by a manager or association.

Opponents to the issue denied that these developments were apartments, and said "they are homes, belonging to the individual who lives in them, and they as individuals can rent them out just the same as you can rent your home if you so desire."

BUT COUNCILMAN George Beebe, Jr., had another view, and argued that these were not homes, but apartments. He reasoned that they were built on R-2 property, ed carrots and peas or potatoes; fruit cup, green salad, potato salad, cabbage slaw or jello cubes; hot rolls and butter coconut cake, chocolate pudding or berry pie; milk.

NIXON BACKERS MEET, EAT WITH NIXON AT KNOTT'S

Southern California Republicans and supporters of Presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon, Whittier attorney who rose to the United States Senate and then Vice-President, met with Nixon Wednesday evening at Knott's Berry Farm.

Reservations were made for desert area Republicans through the Republican campaign headquarters, 315 North Palm Canyon Drive, and Al E. Hoover.

Event had previously been announced for Saturday.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My sister is going to a Halloween party and she is dressing up a costume. She wants to go as a Greek Goddess or an Oriental High Priestess. I told her I didn't think it was right to go dressed up as one of these. I asked her how she would like it if she were in a foreign country and one of the kids came dressed up like a Catholic priest or a Baptist minister. She said she never thought of it that way. My mother said to stop arguing and to write to you.

OLDER SISTER

DEAR SISTER: There is nothing disrespectful about masquerading as a "Greek Goddess" or an "Oriental High Priestess." You are exceptionally kind to consider the possibilities of sacrilege.

DEAR ABBY: The children in the Sixth Grade are taking dancing lessons at school this year. As a result they are starting to give dancing parties at home. At these parties they play "spin the bottle" and "post office" (they go in the clothes closets to kiss). Some parents think no party is complete without kissing games. Should we allow such games? We had a big discussion about this and are divided in our opinions. Are parents out of line in permitting it? I'd like to hear how parents in other communities handle this problem with Sixth Graders. And, as a mother of a teen-aged boy and girl, how do you feel about it, Abby?

SHOOK UP MOTHER FROM SHAKER HEIGHTS

DEAR ABBY: Don't you think married men who attend college should be required to wear wedding bands? A college girl has no way of knowing whether a guy is married or not. Most men in college who are married act the least married and this makes it harder yet.

CAROLYN

DEAR CAROLYN: A wedding ring around a man's finger doesn't always stop his circulation. You can't legislate fidelity.

DEAR MOTHER: Kissing, inspired by a feeling of genuine and mutual affection, is perfectly all right. But games that encourage kissing merely for the sake of kissing (at any age) destroy the real purpose of a kiss. Rely on the Law of Nature — not the Law of chance; and why rush things?

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NEUTRAL AT THE CLUB:" A businessman who says he is not interested in politics is like a drowning man who insists he is not interested in water. Come, now!

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want To Know," send 25c and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

Forgery Rap for Designer

A 23-year-old English dress designer, Barrie Morley Gaunt, will face charges of felony checks in Superior Court at Indio Tuesday, on complaint of "several" Palm Springs merchants, police said today.

Gaunt, who allegedly issued $440.24 worth of worthless checks in Palm Springs during the last half of April, entered a guilty plea during arraignment Thursday, officers said.

He had been returned here after serving 90 days in the Los Angeles jail on a similar count. Indio has placed a hold on him for alleged bad checks in that city.

But the United States State Department may intervene. The passport division has placed a hold on Gaunt for "overstaying his visa," police said. Deportation proceedings are expected on behalf of the government.

Meet '61's new-size sizzler!

Gives you more pow per pound of engine than the compacts...more even than many full-size cars!

Now you can have gas savings and go... easy handling and all-day comfort... all in this luxurious new Buick Special.

Where did this Buick pick up all its pep? From its zippy new aluminum V-8 that delivers twice the pow per pound as the engines of most compacts! From its new aluminum transmission*—the liveliest automatic in any car! Together they give the whiz which normally would have meant adding 500 pounds more weight.

And, for ride... the Special is host to the most. The big Comfort Zone gives you more total head, hip and leg room than the compacts. The 4-coil Control Arm suspension is the same kind as on full-size '61 Buicks so you ride "on velvet." The Hide-Away drive shaft gives more flat floor space.

When you gift-wrap all this with Buick's Clean Look of action... then tag it just a whisper above the compacts, it's no wonder the word's out... '61 Buick's YEAR!

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes wrong.

Well Deserved Recognition

Newspaperboys today are receiving things for themselves, gaining experience in the principles of business and learning many of the basic elements in the art of living.

Each year during the observance of National Newspaper Week one day is set aside for honoring our newspaperboys, those fine young independent businessmen who constitute the final link between the newspaper and its subscriber.

This year National Newspaperboy Day is being observed on the opening day—Oct. 15—and The Desert Sun with pride joins newspapers throughout the nation in paying tribute to the youthful merchant who, day in and day out, do such an effective and efficient job of delivering more than 60 million copies of daily newspapers into the homes of America.

Newspaperboys are a vital cog in the industry they serve. More than that, however, they constitute a distinctive business unit in our capitalistic way of life. They are youthful members of our free enterprise society engaged in doing things for themselves, gaining experience in the principles of business and learning many of the basic elements in the art of living.

In all America there is no better value in work training than the lessons of promptness, service, honesty, dependability, courtesy, thrift, obligation, selling and human relations learned by the newspaperboy.

These young businessmen are learning the basic fundamentals of our business world and our free enterprise system. They are establishing values that will stay with them as long as they live. They are learning, through their own efforts, principles that will assist them in rising to positions of trust and honor.

Our newspaperboys of today will be leaders of tomorrow.

The Desert Sun salutes its own newspaperboys for their important part in industry they serve. More than that, however, they constitute a distinctive business unit in our capitalistic way of life. They are youthful members of our free enterprise society engaged in doing

Devoted to those Who make with the Daily deathless prose.

Today starts National Newspaper Week.

A week in which people pay more than cursory (a good word, that) attention to the boys and girls who slave over a hot typewriter all day and often well into the night, to keep you abreast of what's going on in your community.

BECAUSE, in a long and enjoyable life, exciting, too, I have never drawn stipend from any source except a newspaper, I think I qualify as a member of the profession.

And profession I think it is although most newspapermen do not have a string of capital letters after their names as MD, LL.D., DD, DDS and so on.

Although on occasion I have heard of letters attached to newsmen's names. Letters that spell the word defined by Messrs. Funk and Wagnalls as "to weep with convulsive heaving of the breast or contraction of the throat."

I THINK it would be nice if Schools of Journalism would bestow degrees on graduates like, for instance, Doctor of Terminology. They, the graduates, could go around with the DTs.

Anyway, most people erroneously envy a newsmen.

"What a soft life," they say. "Get in on passes, crash police lines, free load," and on and on.

WHAT THEY DON'T know is that the work of a newspaperman never ends. He can't punch a time clock with a rigid schedule. News doesn't happen that way. Something big happens, in the middle of the night and your reporter is called out at 1 a.m. Stands a chance of getting soaked by a fire hose or shot by a fleeing gunman.

I know that from personal experience. Mrs. G and I eloped on a Wednesday and that afternoon one of the big murder cases in Los Angeles history broke. I didn't see her again until Monday.

DICK WEST:

Walk in The Sun

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — This being fine autumn weather, and both of us being in need of a little exercise, I invite you to join me for a walk in the sun.

Our stroll will take us into a residential neighborhood conveniently located near the U. S. Capitol. For years, it has served as a model slum.

THE LOCATION was not necessarily convenient for the slum dwellers but it was convenient for advocates of slum clearance legislation. At congressional hearings, they could illustrate their testimony merely by pointing out the window.

A witness who had remembered to renew his poetic license could refer to the slum as being "in the shadow of the Capitol." Actually, the shadow of the Capitol doesn't extend beyond the Capitol grounds.

ITS TENANTS, who are the pioneers of redevelopment, already have been waiting 18 months for the city to grow back around them. We leave them to their lonesome virgins and tramp on to the waterfront.

Once the most picturesque part of Washington, which brought in lobster and clams and other ocean fruit, the wharf is now a depressing tangle of incomplete bridges and free ways. We end our journey there because we haven't the heart to continue.

Some day, we are told, this will be the showplace of the capitol, but the way it looks now, a return of the slums would be an improvement.

By investing small fortunes, in the renovation of rundown dwellings, they become the proud owners of "town houses," complete with drafty hallways, bumpy basements, and staircases that would intimidate a mountain goat.

MEANWHILE, the slum area southwest of the Capitol is the scene of the nation's largest urban renewal project, which is costing large fortunes, including a sizable chunk provided by us taxpayers. It is to this area that we direct our footsteps.

Leaving the $100 million new House Office Building sinking slowly into the national debt, we first make our way along a row of empty brick houses which are soon to be torn down.

JUVENILE STREET gangs already have started the demolition work by shattering all the window panes. In a further effort to be helpful, they have shattered the street lights as well.

Even in the daylight, this ghost street is creepy and we are relieved to emerge upon an

MIKE CONNOLLY:

It's Remake Day

HOLLYWOOD — Ziv Productions is zooming up a series based on Anatomy of a Murder. The TV twist on the movie will occur in same courtroom but the cases, of course, will be all different — and let's hope for the sake of our fireside settlers, that they ARE!

Shirley Temple visited Jerry Bloom's acting workshop and signed young John Craig to be her leading man in her TV version of the old Walt Disney hit, The Reluctant Dragon. Today sounds like Remake Day in Hollywood, doesn't it?

DARREN (RIVERBOAT) McGavin showed up at the opening of a new Sunset Strip saloon called The Summit and passed out campaign buttons embossed "Vote NO for President!"

Larry Kert limped in from two years of dancing himself dizzy with the road company of West Side Story and immediately signed up to ride himself ragged in a Wagon Train segment.

INSIDERS WHO'VE seen Lisa Kirk's extraordinary screen career for Burt Lancaster's Birdman of Alcatraz testify it will open up a brand - new dramatic career for the songbird — much the same as From Here to Eternity called the turn on a new career for another singer named Frank Sinatra. Even if she doesn't get the part, almost every movie and TV casting director in town is wearing out the sprockets of Lisa's test.

Joe Pasternak caught Jane Powell's turn in Art Carney's Hooray for Love! special and called her back to her old Alma-Mater for a starring spot in Jumbo.

GLORIA AND Donald O'Connor celebrated their fourth wedding anniversary Tuesday (Oct. 11) watching his TV special at home.

Fourteen other male stars spurned by Love Possessed before Efram Zimbalist, Jr. accepted the lead opposite Lana Turner. As one of them explained: "The script is ALL Lana." I guess Ef is serious about side-stepping his TV stints.

Eddie Kaplan, the agent who books stripteasers, tells me he bought one of his concealed clients a do - it - yourself stripping kit. It's an automatic zipper with a side attachment — an applause phonograph record.

HOTSTUFF — One of those flip-top - type autograph hounds who talk before they think walked up to Comedienne Mary McCarty in the Hollywood Brown Derby and squeaked, "Aren't you Mary McCarty? Whatever HAP-PENED to you?" Mary straight-faced dher answer, "Yes, I am Mary McCarty," she said, "but I died and went to Heaven but you didn't read about it in the papers because I didn't have a press agent."

Another incident, in the same restaurant: Roberta Linn's former press agent walked over to her booth, greeted the singer affectionately, and then slapped her with a subpoena for his back salary.

METRO IS ON a remake kick. Studio steersman Sol Siegel dug up the scripts for the old Clark Cable - Spencer starrer, Boom Town, plus Free Soul (it starred Norma Shearer and Gable) and ordered them updated for the studio's new stable of stars.

It's almost axiomatic that Lee Remick will have one of the melodramatic starring roles in the movie version of Lillian Hellman's traumatic Toys in the Attic.

IT LOOKS LIKE Liz Taylor is out of Irma la Douce. The show is such a smash hit on Broadway, Harold Mirisch doesn't see how he can film it for another two years. He is, however, still holding Two for the Seesaw for Liz — but Eddie Fisher tells me he's going ahead with plans to produce Anna Karenina, starring his wife. So don't be surprised if Mirisch signs Marilyn Monroe or Shirley MacLaine to hold down the distaff end of the Seesaw teeter-totter... I asked Eddie if he's aware of Lana Turner's plans to do Anna Karenina. Said he, "I just heard about Lana's deal but we're going full-steam ahead with ours. The story is in public domain."

I wondered about All-American Boy Pat Boone making a sexy - sounding movie called Warm Bodies. David Weisbart, Pat's producer at Fox, set me straight:

"Warm Bodies" is a U.S. Navy term about the availability of able-bodied men for service on the high seas." Hummm.

Fox bought Broadway's A Loss of Roses for Kim Novak, changed the title to Celebration, signed the original playwright, William Inge, to write the screenplay, and then signed screenwriter Alfred Hayes to show Inge how to write the screenplay. Everything's gonna be all right.

AGE BETTERS CORE DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Gopher Ivan Bunney is tickled pink over President Eisenhower's birthday.

"At last," said Bunney, "he's in the low 70s."

STUMPED FOR STAMP DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Whitey Garretson, a postoffice worker at a Dallas sub-station, said two women came to his window and one brought a money order. Then she turned to her companion and said:

"I don't see a stamp machine anywhere. I guess I'll have to stop by the drugstore."

TEA FOR TWO DERBY, England (UPI) — Pamela Bishop, 17, accused of stealing two cups and saucers, two teapots, two knives, two forks, two spoons and a teapot, was let off by the judge in view of the fact she is getting married soon.

Sounds like the millenium has been achieved, but the actual fact is that a big RKO company is due here Sunday. Between 150 and 200 movie people are to start actual shooting of the recent Leslie Charteris publication, "The Saint in Palm Springs," another of the well known English writer's famous "Saint" series. They are expected to be here for at least six weeks.

Political Pulse-Pennsylvania

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is another of the dispatches covering political activities in various states and areas of the nation.)

HARRISBURGH (UPI) — Both major parties are throwing all their resources into the fight to win Pennsylvania's 32 electoral votes.

The outlook is doubtful at this stage. Vice President Richard Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy have scheduled additional swings into the state in stepped up campaigns.

BOTH SIDES are confident, with the Republicans pointing to the fact that Democrats have been unable to put their presidential nominee over in the state since 1944 when Franklin D. Roosevelt won his fourth term. They also point to their basic strength outside the large metropolitan areas.

But Democrats say the picture has changed, and that this is a Democratic year. The traditional Republican registration lead in the Keystone State has dwindled from its strong margin of almost one million back in 1954 to 23,000 in the primary last April 26.

THE DEMOCRATS upset the 16-year hold of the GOP on the governorship six years ago, and have steadily increased their power on the grass roots level with courthouse and municipal victories since that time. The key to victory for either side may hinge on the showing in the state's two largest cities—Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—which are Democratic strongholds and have been holding the balance of power for the Democrats in statewide contests in recent years.

THE REPUBLICANS will have to hold down the expected Democratic majorities in those two heavily industrialized areas, with large Roman Catholic populations in order to push the national ticket across with the help of much of the rural and outlying counties across the state. The state's hard-coal region, with its acute unemployment problems, is also being wooed furiously by the GOP in an effort to bring it back into the party fold. Some anthracite counties have strayed into the opposition camp or have been turning in sharply reduced margins for the party.

Political analysts in Allegheny County, where Pittsburgh is located, figure Kennedy should defeat Nixon by 50,000 votes in that area. But they emphasize that is a guess.

UNEMPLOYMENT, totaling about 350,000 in the Keystone State, is a big issue. But one of the imponderables is the religious issue and the effect it will have on the predominantly Protestant electorate. Lawrence, who stayed on the fence until virtually the last minute before throwing his powerful support behind Kennedy at the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles, is himself a Catholic.

HE CONCEDED before the convention that his own Catholicism had been a factor in his hesitation to run for the governorship before 1958 — despite his role as "Mr. Democrat" of Pennsylvania for many years and the fact that he could have had the party nomination at any time in that period.

Herbert Hoover won Pennsylvania's electoral votes in 1928 by a margin of 967,796 votes, compiling 2,053,382 against 1,067,586 for Al Smith.

THE CONTESTS for statewide offices have been overshadowed by the presidential races. At stake are the posts of auditor general, state treasurer and a seat on the state Superior Court. On the district level, Lawrence is most anxious to secure control of both houses of the Legislature. He has been plagued by politically divided legislatures since his inauguration in 1959. The Republicans have been in control of the Senate for 22 years.

When Riverside County Key Women for Kennedy hold their Fun Time Tea in the Chi Chi Starlite Room on Tuesday, at 2 p.m. it will be highlighted by an All Star Frolic, headlined by Peter Lawford.

The musical revue, which was written by composer Sammy Cahn, presents a group of famous name wives, including Mrs. Cahn, Mrs. Milton Berle, Mrs. Nat King Cole, Mrs. Steve Allen, Mrs. Gene Barry, and the wives of Los Angeles Dodgers players Don Drysdale and John Roseboro. It is one of five musical revues in Southern California to raise money for the Democratic presidential candidate. Mrs. James Schlect, Key Woman chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Robert Lane, Key Woman chairman for Palm Springs, are working with the ticket committee on advance sales.

Reservations may be made at Democratic headquarters, 392 North Palm Canyon Drive, FA 4-5240 or by phoning Mrs. Schlect. Other committee workers are: Mesdames Stanley Spiegelman

(her husband is president of the Palm Springs Democratic Club), Lionel Steinberg (national treasurer for the Farmers for Kennedy group), Irving Singer, Barney Miller, Leroy Linick, Marjorie Barron, Harold LeAnne, Thurman Arnold, William Bronstein, James Hollowell, Leonard Wolfe, Raymond Chapman, Florence Murray, Evelyn Tarr, Chris Ranes, Lynn Wexler, Arthur Hersh, Al Yellen, Bolt, Barbara Sarup, Jack Aurbach and Misses Gertrude Winograd and Rose Powell of Palm Springs.

In Rancho Mirage tickets may be secured from Mrs. Joseph Kirpin, in Desert Hot Springs, Mrs. Margaret Stein, Mrs. Nat Bertram, Mrs. Mary Nugent, Cathedral City Mrs. Ben Goodwin; Banning Beaumont, Mrs. Virginia Strahan.

Soroptimists Take Bus Trip to Salton Sea Dinner Party

A busload of 40 Soroptimists, Soroptimists and guests received a warm welcome from Trav Rogers when they arrived at the North Shore Beach and Yacht Club Tuesday evening.

Club members and their guests enjoyed a catamaran sail on Salton Sea, preceding the dinner.

Soroptimist Dr. M. W. Addes assumed the role of taitwister for the evening, and raised money for the Club's scholarship fund.

During the brief business session, conducted by Gurli Bilbert,

Marie Ford spoke on "The 39 Pennies," in observance of the 39th birthday of American Federation of Soroptimist Clubs, and each member contributed a penny for each year.

It was a pleasant evening, and the Club expressed its appreciation to Polly Isenagie for arranging it.

Next meeting of Soroptimist Club will be held Tuesday at 12:15 at Palm Springs Lanes and guests will be welcome, Mrs. Gilbert said. An interesting program is planned.

Dance Program Highlights First AAUW Fall Meeting

A large group of members, prospective members and special guests were present for the opening fall meeting which the Palm Springs Chapter of American Association of University Women, held in the Woman's Club house.

The new president Lois Sakin made a welcoming speech and conducted a brief business meeting.

An informal lecture program with dance illustrations, presented by dance specialist Eva Desca, captivated the audience. Working with her were six dancers from her Jazz Workshop. Cleverly drawing her audience into an understanding of the dances, by leading them in many of the movements, Miss Desca offered them as a delightfully healthful exercise, as well as a form of art er of jazz from its primitive sources to its modern form, accepted as an American contribution to folk art, she had housewives, mothers and even one grandmother on her panel of dancers.

Lou Kuehner of Leisure Loft in Rancho Mirage, assisted materially in providing appropriate recorded music for interpretative dancing.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT led to the Sunday elopement of Mr. and Mrs. James Abernathy, who receive the best wishes of Desert Hot Springs hotelman John Golden during a surprise party-complete with bride-and-groom cake-given for the couple poolside at the Tropical Palms hotel Tuesday. Mrs. Abernathy-the former Mrs. Nellie Williams-said it took four years to get her man. The beaming groom said it just took that long to find out "where I stood." Couple eloped to Winterhaven, have notified their total of seven children, 10 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren of the happy event. They will make their home in Montebello, where 79-year-old Abernathy is active as a supervisor for Pacific Pipeline Construction Company. The bride is the mother of Palm Springs resident Larry Williams. (Desert Sun Photo)

See America With Sullivan To Debut

San Francisco Area Locale For First Show

Johnny Mathis, Peggy Lee, Mort Sahl, Dave Brubeck and his instrumentalists, Dorothy Kirsten, The Limelights, and the San Francisco Boys' Chorus will be the guests when the new "See America With Ed Sullivan" series has its premiere from San Francisco Sunday, Oct. 16 on the CBS Television Network (8-9 p.m.).

Each program, a monthly feature of "The Ed Sullivan Show," will originate from a different American city and will strive to capture that city's spirit and traditions. Leading entertainment figures connected with the various cities will be presented on the show against colorful local landmarks and backgrounds.

All of the guests on the premiere show are in some way connected with the San Francisco area. Johnny Mathis, popular singer, recording star and night-club artist, was born and raised there and is currently starring at the Bay Area's Geary Theatre. Song stylist Peggy Lee is a native Californian who has lived and performed in San Francisco.

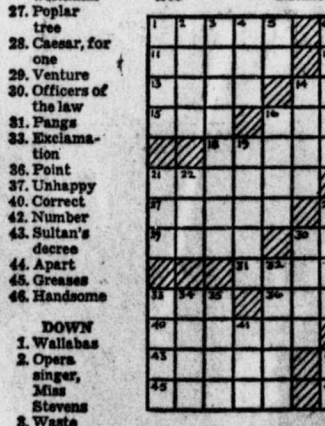

Dave Brubeck is the dean of West Coast jazzman. Operatic soprano Dorothy Kirsten is the star this season of the San Francisco Opera Company. The Limelights are a new San Francisco vocal group.

MARY LIVINGSTONE was originally scheduled to join Jack Benny in the eleventh-season premiere of "The Jack Benny Program," but Jack relented at the last minute and decided to let her remain in retirement. Featured on the opener now at 9:30-10 p. m. (p.s.t.) Sunday on the CBS Television Network will be guest star Mike Wallace, Don Wilson, Rochester, the Sportsmen Quartet and Frank Nelson.

The Desert Sun

RAY COLLINS has become familiar to television viewers as Police Lt. Arthur Tragg on "Perry Mason," which is shown on the CBS Television Network from 7:30-8:30 p. m. (p.s.t.) tonight.

RAY COLLINS FITS ROLE OF LT. TRAGG

"Tragg," says Erie Stanley Gardner in his information sheet on characters in the CBS Television Network series "Perry Mason," "should be remorseless, persistent and skillful."

And Ray Collins, old pro that he is, is exactly that. He was 14 when he began his acting career and in the 56 years that have gone by he has developed a precision in characterization as sharp as an efficiency expert's pencil.

COLLINS WAS born Dec. 10, 1889 in Sacramento, the son of William Collins, a newspaperman, and the former Lily Bidwell, descendant of a pioneer California

Dennis Finds Catastrophic Cache of Cash

When Dennis finds $1,650 in odd bills stuffed in the back of an antique radio set Mr. Wilson had given him, "good old Mr. Wilson" wants to split the cash. Dennis' sense of honor puts a crimp in Mr. Wilson's plans, and a newspaper announcement brings unwelcome numbers of fortune hunters on "Dennis the Menace," Sunday, Oct. 16, 7:30-8 p.m.

Jay North stars as Dennis Mitchell, with Herb Anderson and Gloria Henry as his parents. Joseph Kearns and Sylvia Field play the next door neighbors, the Willsons. Also in the cast are Billy Booth, Ellen Corby, Norman Leavitt and Hal Smith.

Jane Wyman Is Guest Star On 'Checkmate'

Jane Wyman is guest star and Anthony George, Doug McClure and Sebastian Cabot star in Lady on the Brink," the hour-long suspense story of a secretary who testifies in a murder trial and is convinced the killer will take revenge on her on "Checkmate," Saturday, Oct. 15, CBS Television Network, 8:30-9:30 p.m.

As Joan Talmadge, Miss Wyman portrays a woman who accepts the help of Checkmate's Don Corey (George), Jed Sills (McClure) and Carl Hyatt (Cabot) as she finds herself enmeshed in a strange web of circumstances, including a doctor's magazine story about a killer's revenge which turns up on her desk and an apparent suicide attempt.

Mason Takes Lavender Lipstick Case

Girl Chemist Suspected of Murdering Boss

Mason takes the case of a girl chemist accused of murdering her employer when planted evidence is found to indicate that she had sold secret formulas to a rival cosmetics firm, in "The Case of the Lavender Lipstick," on "Perry Mason" Saturday, Oct. 15, CBS Television Network, 7:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Karen Lewis is framed in a mysterious attempt to incriminate her as part of an elaborate conspiracy in which company superintendent Max Pompey and Gabriel Rawson, head of the rival firm, are plotting to force elderly owner Simas Vance to sell out to Rawson's company.

MASON'S INVESTIGATION into the murder of Simas Vance inadvertently puts Miss Lewis in a compromising position when Vance's will reveals that he had a special interest in Karen and has bequeathed everything, including the cosmetics company, to her.

Raymond Burr stars as Mason. Featured as regulars are Barbara Hale as Della Street, William Hopper as Paul Drake, and Ray Collins as Lieut. Tragg.

Here are the most important businessmen in our town. The training they are getting now plus the proper conduct of route affairs are most certainly guiding them toward a successful business or professional future in their lifetime.

Their practical experiences are very important lessons that they will never forget and their association with people will stand them in good stead as they go forth into the world whether it is business or social. Their serious efforts to do a job in the best possible manner and giving satisfaction through their service makes them a giant among all businessmen. They are indispensable in the publication of your hometown newspaper. With their sincere dependable attitude coupled with promptness, self reliance, thrift and courtesy they are achieving what many adults miss in business. They are salesmen par-excellence with a personification of every American tradition and an intelligence to match the best in every walk of life.

To each and every newspaperboy we express our sincere thanks and best wishes for their future for a job well done.

Gauff Stars as Tribe Defeats Hemet 21-13

Rolls Up All Points In Victory

By FRED C. WEIGEL

Fullback Lloyd (Ikey) Gauff, the 172-pound terror of the Palm Springs Indian backfield, aided and abetted by perfect teamwork by the other members of the Tribe, racked up 21 points all by himself as coach Bunting's boys put their first win of the season in the record books over Hemet High, 21-13.

Gauff, backed by perfect coordination of the ten other Indians in the line-up, scored three touchdowns and then ran for three conversions to total all of the local points.

The game was a battle of fullbacks as Dennis Trytten, Hemet Bulldog fullback, playing his first game after being out because of injuries, went over for both of the visitor's TDs.

The scuffle was a clean one with few penalties to mar its progress. A screaming crowd of more than 2,000 urged the two teams on in the battle.

GAUFF CARRIED the ball 24 times and went 120 yards for a neat 4.6 yard average. Trytten gained 104 yards in 19 carries for a 5.4 average.

Palm Springs was on top on the scoreboard, 21-13, and also in the statistics. They had 13 first downs to Hemet's 8, showed a net gain of 223 yards to the Bulldog's 182 and completed two of five pass attempts. Hemet completed five out of 11.

IN THE BATTLE for the Championship of San Geronimo Pass Beaumont's Cougars went by Banning's Broncos 25 to 13 at Beaumont. The Cougars took an early lead and staved off all Banning challenges.

Perris High ran wild over Indio's Rajahs in another practice game last night, 35-6.

Last night's Indian-Hemet game by quarters:
Hemet 0 7 0 6-13
Palm Springs 7 7 0 7-21
Hemet scoring: TDs, Trytten, 2; PAT, Reynolds. Palm Springs scoring: TDs, Gauff, 3; PATs, Gauff, 3.

Stengel's Crew Hopes Old Case Back Next Year

NEW YORK (UPI) — Casey Stengel's career as manager of the New York Yankees may be over but his players hope it isn't.

That was clear Friday when Yankees who straggled into the Yankee Stadium clubhouse to pick up personal belongings agreed to a man they hoped "the Old Man stays over."

Asked point-blank, outfielder Hector Lopez said: "I believe every player on the club hopes he'll be with us again next year."

Stengel remained incommunicado at his hotel while increased but unconfirmed reports circulated that he will resign under pressure from co-owners Dan Topping and Del Webb solely on the grounds of his age, 70.

One report had coach Ralph Houk already notified he will be the new manager but a Yankee spokesman said there will be no word on the situation for a few days.

"We won't have anything to announce on the Stengel situation for several days," he said.

THE INDIAN SCOREBOARD read Home 21-Visitors 13, following four quarters of top football at the Palm Springs High School field last night when the local Indian team met the Hemet Bulldogs in the final game of the pre-league play. Ikey Gauff, scored three touchdowns and three points after touchdown, but not without some of the best teamwork that has been displayed by the Indians in almost five years of football. Above the Indian cheerleaders jump into the air as the clock nears the final gun and Palm Springs held its lead over the Bulldogs. (Desert Sun Photo).

Bruins, Huskies Meet in Feature Big Five Battle

United Press International

Southern California and California, already "has been" in a college football race that isn't even half finished, attempt to salvage something from sad seasons when they clash today in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The Trojans are favorites because they've won one game compared with a Cal record that shows only a tie as a best effort. Two sophomore quarterbacks are expected to guide the controls for the clubs. Randy Gold, destined to be a star, will do the signal-calling for the Golden Bears; Bill Nelsen will handle the chore for the Trojans. About 40,000 fans will see the battle.

ANOTHER 45,000 will be in the stands at Seattle to watch the Washington Huskies battle the well-rested UCLA Bruins. UCLA, through a freak in the schedule, hasn't been in a game since playing Purdue in a tie game on Sept. 24. Tailback Bill Kilmer will be the key in the

Moore Lines Up Busy Fight Sked

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Archie Moore will battle Buddy Turman in a non-title fight Nov. 21 in Dallas, Tex.

Contacted at his home Friday night, the ancient warrior also said he planned to fight Julio in Italy Oct. 29 and is dickering with a Scottish promoter to fight Chick Calderwood, the light heavy champion of the British Empire.

Bruin offensive. Washington, which looked ragged in beating Stanford last week, will be piloted by Bob Schloredt, the brilliant one-eyed quarterback. It is possible that Charlie Mitchell, one of the swiftest backs in the West, will get the starting call in the backfield, benching George Fleming, a Rose Bowl star.

Stanford hosts San Jose State at Stanford Stadium today and the Indians are favored to pick up their first win after four losses. Last year the two teams went on a point binge that found the Indians winning 54-38.

Oregon, fresh from a 33-0 pasting of San Jose State, runs up against tougher competition this time when it takes on Washington State, which played to a tie with California last time out.

OREGON STATE, which trounced Indiana last week, gets only a good workout again this time against winless Idaho.

Arizona State takes on Brigham Young and Arizona meets Tulsa in other major games.

Action Friday night saw Pomona roll past Cal Tech, 34-0 and Long Beach State sweep past California at Santa Barbara, 23-6, for its second straight CCAA victory.

Tommy Bolt Leading By 3 at Costa Mesa

COSTA MESA, Calif. (UPI) — Tommy Bolt, a golfer known for his temper, was out in front by a real cool three strokes today going into the third round of the 72-hole, $15,000 Orange County Open.

The 41-year-old 1958 National Open champion shot a 6-under-par 65 Friday in the second round at the Mesa Verde Country Club to run his 36-hole total to 134 and take the leadership at the halfway mark.

Grouped in second place at 137 at the end of 36 holes were long-hitting George Bayer, Glen Eagles, Ill., 69-68; Marty Furgol, 43-year-old veteran from Coghlin, Ill., 67-

70; and former University of Southern California star Allen Geiberg, Studio City, Calif., 69-68.

Bill Casper Jr., Apple Valley, Calif., who has won the past two tournaments on the professional trail, had a 36-hole total of 138 on rounds of 70-68.

Also at 138 were Tom Nieporte, Bronxville, N. Y. (67-71); and Charles Sifford, Los Angeles, the Negro National Open champ, 70-68.

Billy Maxwell, the Texan who has lined up with a golf course at Oceanside, Calif., shot a second round 65 to match Bolt's performance. But Maxwell was 3-over with a 74 in the first round and his 36-hole total was 139.

Fastest Pilots In Grand Prix Trials Today

Stirling Moss Has Close Call as Car Burns During Prep

RIVERSIDE (UPI) — Most of the world's leading sports car drivers, including two-time international champion Jack Brabham of Australia, today begin qualifying heats for Sunday's 200-mile Grand Prix of sports cars at the Riverside Raceway.

Qualifying runs were scheduled for today and Sunday morning with the race and some $26,000 in prize money scheduled to get started at 2 p.m. PST Sunday.

Stirling Moss, British sports car champion, was permitted to delay his qualifying run until Sunday morning because his Lotus Monte Carlo caught fire Friday during a trial spin.

MOSS SUFFERED burns on his right arm but said he and the car would be ready to qualify.

In addition to the qualifying runs, the Southern California amateur championships were being held today over the sporty 3.275-mile paved course with its nine turns.

Among the famed drivers taking part in the Grand Prix in addition to Brabham and Moss were Joakim Bonnier of Sweden, Roy Salvadori of Britain, defending champion Phil Hill of the United States and his teammates on the Ferrari factory team, Dan Gurney and Richie Ginther, and numerous others.

THE FERRARI TEAM will be challenged by teams of Maserati "birdcages" with Carroll Shelby heading that squad, Jaguars and other noted racing groups.

The American contenders include Augie Pabst in a Scarab, Max Balchowsky in his Old Yeller No. 3 and Dick Thompson in his Sting Ray.

From 87 entrants, the field will be reduced to 33 qualifiers for the Grand Prix. A consolation race for the top non-qualifiers also was scheduled for Sunday.

The Grand Prix for sports cars is sponsored by the Los Angeles Times and Los Angeles Mirror and all profits going to charity.

Women Golfers Of SM to Meet on Season Plans

Bob Pinnell, golf professional at Shadow Mountain Club will be the guest speaker at the first fall luncheon meeting of the Shadow Mountain Women's Golf Association at the club on Monday, October 17 at 12:30 p.m.

Donna Murray, president of the organization, said that guests of the members are invited to attend the meeting where plans for the coming season will be formed. Reservations must be made by calling the club.

In addition to Mrs. Murray, new members on the board of directors are Mrs. Rhea Carling, vice president; Mrs. Agnes Berquist, treasurer; Mrs. Florence Cowan, secretary; Mrs. Anne Schütz, social chairman; Mrs. Dolly Olsen and Mrs. Ellen Johnson, house-keeping chairmen and Mrs. Mercedes Schwilck, publicity.

Another Session Of Baseballers Called Tomorrow

Following a successful initial practice session, manager Bob Williams and co-manager John Markinko of the Coachella Valley Savings and Loan association baseball team sounded a call for the second practice session tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Polo Grounds.

Formation of teams and nights of practice will be discussed at tomorrow's meeting.

Roy Grow, recreation supervisor, urged all interested in playing baseball in a new Winter League now formed, to turn out.

The new Desert League is expected to start operations within two weeks, Grow said.

Desert Event to Attract Field of 300 Women Here

Approximately 300 of the Southland's leading women golfers will converge on three desert area golf courses Monday and Tuesday for the third annual Desert Event tournament of the Southern California Women's Golf Association, a 36-hole medal play event.

The tournament will be played at Indian Wells, Eldorado and Bermuda Dunes Country Clubs. Members of the large field will play a different course each day.

Low handicappers will play Indian Wells Monday and Eldorado Tuesday.

Defending champion is Ruth McCullah of Riviera CC. She is a one-handicapper.

Other leading Southland women golfers who have already indicated their intention of playing are Jan Tarbel of Bel Air; Betty Loveys of Lakeside and Mrs. Irving Knight of El Cabelero.

The field will also list many top golfers from desert area country clubs.

P.S. Lanes Plans Free Lessons for Women of Desert

Manager Joe Pine of Palm Springs Lanes today said that the establishment is forming free bowling classes for women and that applications are being taken by telephone or in person to determine which day and at what time most bowlers prefer to attend the sessions.

Instruction classes will be held for three weeks and there will be no charge for bowling or for the lessons. The classes are designed for women who are beginner bowlers.

Upon completion of the three-week course it is planned to place the bowlers in handicap leagues where they may compete with legers in their class.

Palm Springs Lanes is located at 2315 McCallum Way, east of Sunrise Way.

Brown Runs Into Grief First Day

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Joe Brown world lightweight champion, continued workouts at the Olympic Auditorium today for his Oct. 28 title defense against Cisco Andrade.

Brown had his troubles Friday, his first day in Southern California. First he was held up by the large crowd that turned out to see Vice President Richard Nixon's motorcade.

Then he was knocked down by sparring partner Timmie Jefferson during a workout. Brown jumped up right away, however, and went two more rounds with Jefferson.

OLD PRO IS BACK ON THE BEAM

Art Wall Cards 62 To Lead W.Va. Open

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI) — over a month ago. But he obviously hasn't let his game get dull. His irons were especially sharp as he got the ball close enough for five birdie putts of 10 feet or less. In the process of shooting his 62, Wall even had one three-putt green, but it was still good enough for a par.

The nimble pro from Pocopo Manor, Pa., carried a two-stroke lead today into the second round of the West Virginia Open after a blistering eight-under-par 62 Friday in the opening round of the 54-hole tournament.

This was too much for Sam Snead, the sentimental favorite here, from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., although he had a good chance to do just as well. Snead fired a 64 without getting a birdie on any of the last six holes-two or three of them considered ripe for birds.

IT WAS THE BEST competitive round of Wall's 11-year professional career. Wall, 37, said he's all over ailments which forced him to sit out some of the major tournaments this past summer after winning pro "golfer of the year" title and top prize money in 1959.

"I feel fine — just great," he said after his sparkling 62. "A round like that will cure almost anything that ails you. And I'm ready to get back on the circuit full-time again."

"But we've still got a couple of rounds here and Sam and Arnie are going to be hard to stave off."

ARNIE IS ARNOLD PALMER, this year's top money winner. The 21-year-old Ligonier, Pa., "golfer of the year" for 1960 stroked a four-under-par (66) Friday, although complaining about "miserable putting."

At 67 were West Virginia amateur champ Ed Tutwiler of Charleston and West Virginia pro tourney champ George Hoffer, Huntington.

Tied for sixth with 68s were amateurs Bill Campbell, former U. S. Walker Cup captain, and Marshall Hawkins, both of Huntington.

ONLY THREE OTHERS broke par 70 in the big field of 130 at the West Virginia Open sought to go big time. Shooting 69s were pros Bill Griffith of Syracuse, N. Y., Jim Barber of Winchester, Ky., and Benny Varda, Spencer, W. Va.

This is Wall's first competitive golf since he took second place in the Utah Open at Salt Lake City

Saund Tells Tariff Quiz Itinerary

Three Investigators
To Be in Riverside
County on Oct. 19

WASHINGTON — Congressman D. S. Saund (D29th District, Calif.) today announced the tentative itinerary of three U. S. Tariff Commission investigators who will be in California this month to study the effects of foreign imports of fresh fruits and vegetables on the economies of Imperial, Coachella and Palo Verde Valleys.

Hyman Leikind, senior commodity analyst, is in charge of the commission study which was ordered by the House Ways and Means Committee in response to an urgent request by Congressman Saund. Leikind advised the West-morland representative that he, William Kurtz and Edward Martin began their work in California with consultations in Sacramento on Oct. 10-11 with State of California agricultural officials.

FROM OCT. 12 through today they are tentatively scheduled to meet with University of California marketing specialists in Berkeley and San Francisco.

They plan to be in Los Angeles on Oct. 17-18 to talk with representatives of the Western Growers Association and will go to Riverside on Oct. 19. After conferring with Riverside County Agricultural Commissioner Robert Howie, the three specialists anticipate meeting with a number of growers in the Coachella and Palo Verde Valleys through Oct. 21.

THE FIELD TRIP will continue in Imperial Valley on Oct. 24 where the investigators are planning a conference with Imperial County Agricultural Commissioner Claude Fennell on that day and meetings with individual growers and shippers for the next two or three days.

The investigators are slated to go to Nogales, Arizona, on Oct. 27 or 28. Nogales is a port of entry for much of the fresh fruit and vegetables from Mexico which have come into the United States during the last decade. These imports have had a seriously depressing effect upon the economies of the desert regions where these products were once the principal crops, Saund noted.

Saund anticipates that the results of the studies may be the basis of legislative action to assist U. S. farmers who are faced with competition from the imports grown primarily in Mexico where production costs are far below those which must be borne in this country.

Woolworth's Sets Nov. 3 Opening

Palm Springs' first national chain store, F. W. Woolworth's, will be the center of much excitement and a unique ribbon cutting ceremony when it makes its bow Nov. 3 in Cameron Center.

The ribbon will be composed of cellophane wrapped dates grown only a few miles from Cameron Center. The dates will be distributed to those attending the opening rites with an invitation to "have a date at Woolworth's."

Officiating at the ceremonies will be the store's manager, Bob Harman and George E. Cameron, Jr., who is building the store on his 12 acre merchandising mart on South Palm Canyon Drive.

MAN CALLS POLICE, REPORTS SELF DRUNK —LANDS IN JAIL

One inebriated citizen called himself into a drunk charge Wednesday night, police reported.

Russell Bartacheck, address unlisted, called to request an officer's assistance. The caller reported he was drunk, had been tossed out of a bar, and had lost his watch.

An officer responded on the mercy errand, and found the report was factual on at least one count. Bartacheck was booked for public intoxication.

By RAFAELA MARMOLEJO V

Dr. John A. Costello and his esposa (wife) Gwen are back in their home in Clancy Lane, on Rancho Mirage. The Costellos spent el Verano (the summer) in Los Angeles, but for two weeks in July (in July) they went to Mexico City, stopping in Guadalajara and other pueblos circunvecinos (surrounding towns). Senora Costello... we think... is getting ready for her Western Party... Aren't you senora? ... Anyway Bienvenidos (Welcome).

Cuca Gonzales from Banning y ahora (and now) staying with her daughter Carmen Jurado of 3920 Sunny Dunes Road is recovering de un (from a) mild stroke suffered Monday the third of this mes (month). Esperamos (we hope) you will be completamente (completely) well soon.

IT WAS NICE to greet Helen Lozano of 3908 Camino Parocela esta ciudad (this city), our own "natural" pelirojo (redhead) was in India, "window shopping"... Elena is just as attractive como siempre (as ever) you wouldn't think she has been casada (married) 15 years! ... Helen don't get mad no estoy diciendo (I am not telling) your age!

We also greeted but not in India... Estela Prieto and Helen Ayala and we saw at a distance Jeanie Coultis Anguiano one day in Church she looks the same only a little mas attractive (more attractive) ... We don't see how she does it wit hall the children she has...

SEÑOR PAUL AND Mary Salais of 4038 Paseo Luisa on sus dos (with their two) daughters were in Mexicali, Baja, Calif. ... We hope you had a nice viaje (trip) ... Did you see Rosa?

Dr. Oulista Stefan of 3862 Sunny Dunes Road is back from sus vacaciones (from her vacation) ... The Doc got home on the fourth y la pobrecita (and the poor thing), got a touch of the flu a el ultimo (at the very last) of her vacation, Gracias a Dios (thank God) she got home safe and sound to recuperate.

No se olviden (don't forget) to Stop Look and Listen while on the Highway, while going through crosswalks, and most of all on School Zones, watch your driving, not your neighbors, remember You and only You are responsible for saving a Life ... Que Dios los bendiga ... Y ... Hasta Luego.

Operations to correct crossed eyes should be completed before a child enters school, experts say.

New Twist

NEW YORK (UPI) — Serve breakfast in a lazy susan dish for greater variety. Place a mixture of 2 or more cereals in center dish and surround it with dishes of fresh, sliced and sweetened peaches, blueberries and sliced bananas, for topping.

Outspoken

MONTPELIER, Vt. (UPI) — City Manager Ralph Irving, running into much local opposition about the location of a city dump, said, "If I thought the best site for the new city dump was in my back yard, I'd recommend it to the City Council."

Upstanding Advice

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Farmer Jake Clinger said he recently called a veterinarian to report that his cow had had spells when she couldn't get up for several days and asked the vet's advice. "Next time she's up—sell her," was the veterinarian's reply.
